The "Modified Solera" style-blending program for our Late Harvest Zinfandel continues to develop and produce a desert wine of luxurious depth and complexity. Composed of vintages 2002 through 2013, the older vintages add decadent depth while younger vintages add freshness and life. The careful blending of our Late Harvest Zinfandel results in a dessert wine to be savored.

Notes of baked cherry cobbler, toasted coconut and luscious caramel dominate the nose of this complex and utterly delicious late harvest wine. Despite its place as a dessert wine, the palate remains lively and clean and includes ripe figs and touches of spearmint. This wine perfectly fits into the fruit component of your cheese platter. Try with hard salty cheeses or indulge your senses by pairing with Roquefort stuffed figs wrapped in prosciutto and drizzled with aged balsamic. Save the last sip with a bite of dark chocolate. Enjoy our Late Harvest Zinfandel this winter or cellar through 2022 and beyond.
